Two decades ago, Christian rock band Servant hung up their gear after almost fifteen years of relentless touring, over 2,500 domestic and international concerts, and six records. This summer they are reuniting for the Cornerstone Music Festival AND a single pre-festival Cincinnati show.

Join us for an exclusive preview performance and fundraising event. Spend time with the band for an intimate evening of Music, Images and Stories. You will be our first audience in twenty years and your participation will help underwrite the adventure.
